MEMORANDUM TO GENERAL SMITH

Mr. Paul Martin, Washington representative of the Gannett newspapers, tentatively plans to bring the visiting group of editors to your office on Tuesday morning, 19 Dec., sometime between 10:00 and 11:00 AM. Their schedule is still somewhat indefinite on this morning but he will call later to set a definite time.

He mentioned that they were having dinner with John Foster Dulles on Monday evening, 18 December. If you would prefer to meet with them at this dinner rather than in your office, he will be happy to add you and Mr. Jackson to the guest list.
